Mrs. W. A. Simkins went to Benton Harbor the first of the week to resume treatment at the Premier Baths.

C. W. Van Tassell and family have been entertaining two brothers, Carl W. Van Tassell and wife of Union City, Pa., and R. H. Van Tassell and family of Corry, Pa. They made the trip by auto. Carl Van Tassell is in the undertaking business and went to Sterling, Illinois to purchase a new Auto hearse, which he will drive home.

Dr. B. O'Dell and wife arrived home last Saturday after spending three weeks in camp at Vicksburg. They report a delightful outing.

The number of deaths in Michigan during the month of July was 3,481 and number of births 7,815.

The Idle Hour theatre announces an added attraction for this (Friday) night. It is called the "Spirit of Corn" and takes one through the immense Argo factory. This is an extra picture and will be run in addition to the regular Friday night feature.

Leo Mather was home Sunday from the Training Camp at Fort Sheridan to spend the day with his parents and friends.

W. H. Filley who has been in poor health for some time is growing rapidly worse and his friends are apprehensive of the results. He is confined to his bed.

H. J. Dunbar has been a busy man this season. The following are among the recent jobs taken by him. The Trane Vapor Heating system for the following residences. W. H. Isom at Reynolds Lake; J. E. Weiler and the Prange Apartments in Kalamazoo; M. H. Pugsley, and W. R. Sellick, Paw Paw. A new furnace in the C. W. Bilsborrow and Conner residences and a plumbing job for the Allais residence.

Dr. Roscoe Broughton of Laurel, Montana surprised his parents and sister here by dropping in on them the first of the week. He made a business trip to Detroit, and stopped in Lansing on his return, bringing his mother and brother Paul back with him. The Doctor expects soon to be called to the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army.

Mrs. Marie Wilson Kellogg of Flint is visiting her mother Mrs. Edna Wilson.

Lieutenants Mark Chaffee and Robert Dillon will report at Camp Custer Battle Creek the latter part of this month, and will undoubtedly be assigned for duty in training the new army.

News reached Paw Paw of the death of Mrs. M. C. Cronin at the home of her daughter Mrs. John McKlusky in Kalamazoo Thursday morning. The funeral will be held from St. Mary's Church in Paw Paw Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Father Clarkson will officiate.

Occasionally requests are made for advertising space Thursday afternoon after the paper is practically made up which is a great inconvenience to the office. In this connection we desire to state that hereafter it will be impossible for us to handle advertising copy received after Thursday noon.

Dr. Glenn A. Showerman has been commissioned First Lieutenant in the Dental Section of the Officers' Reserve Corps of the U. S. Army. He received the glad news last Saturday and has been receiving congratulations of friends since that time. Glenn is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Showerman and graduated from the Dental department of the University of Indiana last June.

Mrs. Dadella Church is entertaining a son Arthur Church from Chicago. He is an attorney there and is about to enter the training camp for officers at Fort Sheridan.

Charles Marshall and wife of Cleveland, Ohio were in Paw Paw the first of the week. Both were formerly Lawrence people and are well known here.

Robert Cavanaugh went to Ann Arbor the first of the week for an operation on his throat and nose.

Board Completes Examination

There is absolutely no way to evade the law. Agents from the War department in connection with local officers will follow evaders to the end of the earth and sooner or later every man must answer to the government that gives him protection.

Fine Start for Big Chautauqua

morning testifies to her ability in this line. She gathers the flock about her again each afternoon at 4:30 for a story hour, and the "Wee Tots" come at 3:00 o'clock. A chautauqua without a Junior Department is not complete and the M. Land Circuit have overlooked nothing for the convenience, comfort and instruction of its patrons.

The program for the balance of the week is given in full on page two of this issue, with illustrations and announcements of the various attractions. Some rich things are in store and every day will be a big day.

Those who have not yet purchased a season ticket, can well afford to do so now, even though they cannot attend more than half of the remaining numbers. It is an opportunity of a lifetime to see and hear the best that is given from the American platform.

PROVIDE SMOKES FOR THE SOLDIER BOYS AT THE FRONT.

Are you willing to donate a little towards a fund to provide the American soldier boys with their favorite brand of tobacco while in the trenches at the front in France. There is a movement on all over the country, and America is determined that her soldiers shall not only be amply supplied with provisions and clothing, but that they shall also have the comfort (those who have been accustomed to it) of tobacco that they can use. Paw Paw will not be behind in this or any other movement connected with the war. C. C. Chappell has arranged a window in his cigar store for the reception of parcels of tobacco which will be sent to the front. The fine picture in the center executed by that talented artist Lynn Reynolds, tells the story. Study the picture carefully, then loosen your purse strings a little more and purchase at least 25 cents worth of tobacco that you think some soldier boy at the front will like. The name of the giver should be placed on with sticker on each parcel.

FAMOUS WILD WEST SHOW

AT KALAMAZOO ON AUG. 28.

A Wild West show, offering as one of its star riding features a famous bareback equestrienne, would seem to be violating tradition, but this it what is promised for the Jess Willard-Buffalo Bill Wild West and circus, which exhibits in Kalamazoo, on Tuesday, August 28th.

Emily Stickley, the principal bareback equestrienne with the big show, comes from a family famous as riders and all-around circus performers for many generations. There has not been a time during the past seventy-five years when some clever representative of the Stickney family and name has not been before the American public in the role of arenic star. The name Stickney belongs to the best traditions of the American circus. This latest product of the noted family is described as young, dainty and petite, and at the same time she is a rider of such fascinating cleverness as to create something of a sensation whenever she appears in the arena.

Then, by way of a still greater contrast, there is Mme. Marantette, a modern woman. Mme. Marantette, is not only a famous trainer of high-school horses, but is herself a most skilled and intrepid rider. Mounted on one of her famous jumping horses she thinks nothing, it is said, of sending her mount over a seven foot fence. These three riders illustrate three entirely different styles of equestrianism, and each is equally great in her way.

There are, it is announced, many other skilled riders with the big show, and especially attention is given to broncho-busting and other horse displays that demand the maximum of cleverness and daring. The preliminary street parade takes place at 10:30 show day.
